The Baccalaureate Ceremony

Baccalaureate is the ceremony during the Commencement Season in which University Leaders, student participants, and a guest speaker address aspects of the moral life and its relation to liberal education through remarks, speeches, song, and readings from sacred texts. By history and practice the baccalaureate is associated with the bachelor's degree. As such, it is a distinctly undergraduate event.

The participation of students from various traditions reflects the religious origins of the ceremony in which a sermon was delivered. Today, however, as a testament to our spiritually and culturally diverse student body, readings and music from a broad range of traditions make the baccalaureate ceremony one in which the entire graduating class may participate.

Afterglow
by Bruce Montgomery, 1964

University of Pennsylvania Glee
Club

*Shadows grow long on the campus,
Twilight has come again.
Warm copper rays streak the golden haze
As peace settles down on Penn.
And soft and low,
In the pale afterglow,
The voices of students ring
With the songs and cheers
Of their fair college years,
The songs they love to sing:
"Post jucundam juventutem Vivat academia."
Sing the praise of college days.
Sing of Pennsylvania!*

Red and Blue
by Harry E. Westervelt,
Medicine Class of 1898

University of Pennsylvania Glee Club

*Come all ye loyal classmates now,
In hall and campus through,
Lift up your hearts and voices
For the royal Red and Blue.
Fair Harvard has her crimson,
Old Yale her colors too,
But for dear Pennsylvan-i-a,
We wear the Red and Blue.
Hurrah! Hurrah! Pennsylvan-i-a,*
